My dear Sir.

I hope you like the complete series of plates in animal locomotion, as well as you did the few specimens I had the pleasure of showing you.

If you will kindly facilitate the examination of the work by the few subscribers I have in Washington and Baltimore, for the purpose of enabling them to make a selection of the plates they require, I shall feel very much obliged, and hope to thank you personally, in the Fall for your courtesy.

Faithfully Yours,

My Dear Sir:

Your kind note of the 15th inst, I have just received, and I trust you will pardon my second intrusion, as I think I did not write clearly. The picture I allude to is not a Mountain, it is I think after Mountain; it is one of my father's own paintings. It is a Scene, a Scene, camp under a large oak tree. There are four or 5 figures; and one or two of them portraits. The principal female figure is a portrait of Mrs Davis, the wife of that artist. Perhaps I am wrong in calling it after Mountain. I don't know how to picture of my father, the subject would like to procure one. Will you kindly let me know, now or after my explanation, you think you do not want it - what is the plan to better adopt to dispose of it, and its probable worth

Very respectfully
Yours

Dear Sir:

I am the son of Henry Inman, the artist, and I have a picture of his, I wish to dispose of. It is about 2 1/2 x 2 feet, (I have it on Portland Maine, and as I quote measure from memory may not be absolutely exact) the picture is a "Maslana" - a Syzy scene - one of the figures is a portrait of Mrs. Darwin (wife of the Artist of that name). My father has been dead you know forty-one years. I believe you have no work of his - you have a portrait of Clay "attributed" to him - but I don't think he painted it - at least I find no record of it in his journal. Please let me know what it is worth to you -

Respectfully

Henry Inman Box 246.

Dear Mr MacLeod I don't know how to describe Miss Campbell's picture, unless you call it "Fancy Portrait of a Lady," or "Portrait of a Lady, in fancy dress," as I think it is the likeness of a friend - She hoped by putting this picture in the gallery, as Mr. Furman said she ought, that this might be sold, or that orders ^{would} be given her for others - I will inclose ye-note to her, and ask her if Sam. regret in what I say - Thank you for the had told her she could place in the gallery there. The frame our men could not carry, and it is at home

In a letter rec'd from Miss Campbell this morning, she says she told her Cousin the picture was at the house her where he was to send for it, to place it in the gallery -
